NATIONAL CHILDREN'S BOTANICAL GARDEN: ETHICAL DONATION GUIDELINES

The National Children's Botanical Garden of Canada is committed to ensuring that all donations we receive are handled with the utmost care and ethical consideration. We strive to be transparent and accountable in all our fundraising efforts, and we are dedicated to maintaining the trust of our donors and supporters.

To this end, we pledge to:

1. Use all donations in a manner consistent with our mission and values.
2. Ensure that all donations are used for the purposes specified by the donor, and that the donor's intent is respected.
3. Respect the privacy of our donors and protect their personal information in accordance with applicable privacy laws.
4. Provide accurate and timely information to donors about the impact of their donations, and the activities and programs that their donations support.
5. Honour requests from donors who wish to remain anonymous and respect their wishes for non-disclosure.
6. Refrain from accepting donations that are inconsistent with our mission and values, or that may compromise our independence, integrity, or reputation.
7. Ensure that all fundraising activities are conducted in an ethical, transparent, and accountable manner, and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

We are committed to building strong and lasting relationships with our donors and supporters, and we recognize the importance of their contributions to our success. We value their trust and support, and we are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of ethical conduct in all our fundraising activities.

Thank you for considering a donation to the National Children's Botanical Garden of Canada. Your support is greatly appreciated and will help us to achieve our mission of inspiring children to love and protect nature.
